Title : Effective Rules Setting
Speaker : Mr Jason Ng
Synopsis: Enforcing rules on children is necessary for effective parenting. Rules promote safety and structure to a child's life that create order and set them up for success at home and school. Setting up effective rules will make instilling positive discipline much easier. As such, the methods for establishing rules need to be very thoughtful and deliberate. Parents must carefully consider how each rule fits into our overall system of discipline, and specifically what the aim and intent is of the rule itself.
In this workshop, parents will learn certain guidelines that will help them use effective communication in discipline, which is creating and enforcing rules, limits and responsibilities.

Please select the options below to indicate your participation and return the reply slip below to the General Office through your child/ward by Monday, 14 January 2019. Thank you.

Yours Sincerely,

Ms Jessie Lim
Principal
